Two Heart to Heart Hospice Indiana Locations Earn Prestigious Level 5 Certification in ‘We Honor Veterans’ Program

Indianapolis, Fishers sites achieve highest tier in commitment, capacity to serve specific needs of veterans

Plano, Texas – Heart to Heart Hospice, one of the country’s largest private providers of hospice care, is proud to announce that its Indiana sites in Indianapolis and Fishers have achieved Level 5 certification – the highest tier – in We Honor Veterans, a program of the National Alliance for Care at Home.

The We Honor Veterans program, which empowers end-of-life care partners to meet the unique needs of America’s veterans and their families, provides five levels of partnership activity and commitment. Level 5 is awarded to hospice providers that not only complete all requirements in veteran-centered education, organizational development, and community outreach, but also demonstrate leadership by expanding partnerships with other local organizations and mentoring other hospices.

“Reaching Level 5 reaffirms our unwavering commitment to serving Indiana’s veterans with dignity, respect, and specialized expertise,” said Paula Matthews, RN, and Executive Director of Heart to Heart Hospice of Indianapolis. “This achievement reflects years of comprehensive staff training and meaningful community engagement to enhance our veteran-specific care.”

As Level 5 providers, Heart to Heart Hospice of Indianapolis and its sister site in Fishers join an elite group of hospice agencies nationwide recognized for their commitment to veterans and for elevating the standard of care across the industry.

“Delivering exceptional care and support to our nation’s veterans and their loved ones is an extremely important initiative at all Heart to Heart Hospice locations,” said Kelly Mitchell, Founder and CEO. “It is a privilege to serve those who have served and given so much for our country.”
